COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

ST. LUCAS HEALTHCARE COMMUNITY
AND MINNESOTA’S HEALTH CARE UNION,
SEIU HEALTHCARE MINNESOTA

This Agreement is made and entered into this first day of November, 2013 by Mission Healthcare #1 L.L.C. d/b/a St. Lucas Healthcare Community ("the Employer"), and SEIU Healthcare Minnesota ("the Union").

ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative of Employees employed in the unit for which the Union was certified by the National Labor Relations Board in NLRB Case No. 18-RC-12043 as unit employees’ exclusive representative.

1.1 CLASSIFICATION OR TITLE CHANGE

In the event the Employer and the Union are unable to agree as to the inclusion within the unit or exclusion from the unit of a new or modified job classification not specified in the Appendix A hereof, the issue shall be submitted to the National Labor Relations Board for determination. Upon inclusion of a new or modified job classification within the bargaining unit, the wage rate of such classification shall be negotiated by the Employer and the Union and the rate agreed upon shall become part of this Agreement. The Employer shall notify the Union as soon as practical of any proposed new classification or title.

1.2 NO CHANGE TO DEFEAT CONTRACT

No classification or title shall be changed or new classification or title created to defeat the spirit of this Agreement. No classification or title within the unit shall be changed or created, and no Employee shall be transferred or promoted except upon at least ten (10) days written notice to the Union prior to the effective date of the same, which notice shall specify in detail the proposed change, establishment, transfer, or promotion. Whenever an emergency situation exists or when, because of unique circumstances, the efficient operation of the employer is threatened, the Employer may make temporary assignments between classifications which temporary assignments shall not extend beyond forty-eight (48) hours.

1.3 NO CONTRADICTORY RULE

The Employer agrees not to enter into any agreement or contract with its Employees within the bargaining unit either individually or collectively, which conflicts with any of the provisions of the Agreement.
ARTICLE 2 — SUCCESSORSHIP

In the event of a transfer, sale or assignment of the Employer’s facility, the Union shall be notified as soon as practical in advance of such action. Upon request of the Union, the Employer agrees to meet and bargain the effects of such transfer, sale or assignment upon the bargaining unit Employees.

ARTICLE 3 — UNION SECURITY

3.1 UNION SECURITY

There is a Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Employer and SEIU Healthcare Minnesota, covering wages, hours of work, and other terms and conditions of employment. The Collective Bargaining Agreement provides that the Union is the sole representative for the classification of work for which the Employee is hired. After completion of sixty (60) calendar days of employment, the Collective Bargaining Agreement provides the Employee with the following two choices:

1. Employees may elect to become a Union member and participate fully in the affairs of the Union by paying an initiation fee and monthly dues.

2. Employees may choose not to become a Union member and pay a service fee and monthly fees. These Employees shall not be able to attend membership meetings or participate in contract negotiations.

At the time of employment, a new employee who shall be subject to this Agreement shall be informed of this by the Employer and the Union.

It is the Employee’s responsibility and condition of employment to ensure that payments to the Union are made on a timely basis. The collective Bargaining Agreement provides that Employees may voluntarily elect to have Union dues and fees deducted from their paychecks and sent to the Union.

3.2 All Employees covered by this Agreement who are now or may hereafter become members of the Union shall during the life of this Agreement, remain members of the Union in good standing as a condition of employment. “In good standing”, for the purposes of this Agreement, is defined to mean the payment of a standard initiation fee and standard regular monthly dues, uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the Union.

Employees covered by this Agreement who elect not to become Union members shall pay to the Union an enrollment fee in an amount equal to the standard initiation fee paid by Employees who become Union members and a monthly service fee equal to the standard monthly dues paid by Union members. This payment in no event shall exceed the regular monthly
Union dues paid by Union members working an equivalent number of hours.

Payments required by this section shall be made only after an Employee has completed sixty (60) days of employment. The fee required by paragraph one shall be due and payable upon the sixty-first (61st) day of employment and must be paid within ten (10) days thereafter. Monthly payments required by paragraph two are due and payable the first (1st) day of the month following the completion of sixty (60) days of employment and shall be paid by the tenth (10th) day of each month.

Any Employee electing to pay the enrollment and service fee who is delinquent in making the payments required herein for more than thirty (30) days shall be terminated by the Employer without any notice to the delinquent Employee. Termination shall occur within three (3) days after receipt of written notice for the Union to the Employer of such delinquency.

3.3 DUES DEDUCTIONS

The Employer agrees to deduct Union dues or comparable enrollment and service fees for the employees electing not to become Union members, from the wages of the employees who voluntarily provide the Employer with a written authorization to make such deductions. The written authorization shall be irrevocable for a period of more than one (1) year or beyond the termination date of this Agreement, whichever occurs sooner. Deductions shall be made from the wages of employees in the first (1st) pay period of the month following the actual withholding, together with a record of the amount, social security number, and name of those for whom such deductions have been made. The Employer will work with the Union to implement changes in dues and fees deductions in a reasonable time after the notification of such changes.

In the event that no wages are due the employee or that they are insufficient to cover the required deduction, the deduction for such month will nevertheless be made from the first wages of adequate amount next due the employee and will thereupon be transmitted to the Union.

The Union agrees to refund promptly any dues found to have been improperly deducted and transmitted to the union.

Any employee who is paying dues or an amount equal to dues may stop making those payments by giving written notice to both the Employer and the Union during the period not less than thirty (30) and not more than forty-five (45) days before the annual anniversary date of the employee’s authorization or the date of termination of the applicable contract between the Employer and the Union, whichever occurs sooner. The Employer will honor employee check-off authorizations unless they are revoked in writing during the window period, irrespective of the employee’s membership in the Union.
The Union will provide to the Employer verification that dues deductions have been authorized by the employee. Employees may express such authorizations by submitting to the Union a written application form, through electronically recorded phone calls, by submitting to the Union an online deduction authorization, or by any other means of indicating agreement allowable under state and federal law.

The Union will also send copies to the Employer of the various warning notices sent to the member pursuant to its present practice so that the Employer may take steps designed to keep the Employee in good standing.

If the Employee does not remain in good standing, as defined above, the Employer shall terminate the Employee within three (3) days of written notice to do so from the Union.

3.4 EMPLOYEE LISTS

Each month, the Employer will send the Union a list with the following information:

If the charges are not established, or if the Employer determines that discipline is warranted but that suspension is not appropriate or that the period of the investigatory suspension would not be appropriate as a disciplinary suspension, the Employee shall receive back pay, benefits, and seniority for the period of the investigatory suspension that is not converted to a disciplinary suspension.

The "Just Cause" provision in our contracts protect us against unfair and unjust discipline that employers hand out. The Key sentence in our contracts usually reads "The employer shall not discipline or discharge any employee without just cause". It may say "cause" or fair cause" or something to that affect, but the meaning is the same: the employer can't discipline us because they feel like it, there has to be a reason and they have to show us proof.

Stewards must be ready to handle all sorts of discipline cases, from warnings to suspensions to firings. Using the 7 Tests of Just Cause on the other side of this card, will help us represent our members fairly and powerfully.

If the employer has violated any of the 7 Tests of Just Cause, it makes their case weaker. When we are able to prove they haven't met the standards, we win grievances. These tests have been upheld by arbitrators since a 1966 U.S. Supreme Court decision.
1. Was the member given advance warning of the probable consequences of their actions?

2. Was the rule/policy/management’s request reasonable related to efficient and safe operation?

3. Was the alleged violation of the rule, policy, or management’s request fully investigated prior to corrective action?

4. Was the investigation fair and objective?

5. Did the investigation uncover substantial proof of guilt?

6. Was the employer’s treatment even handed and non-discriminatory?

7. Was the corrective action reasonably related to the member’s work record and the gravity of the offense?
