8.2 The Employer will provide the Union with copies of notices of disciplinary actions, disciplinary suspensions for employees, or discharges of Post-Probationary employees.
ARTICLE IX
UNION SECURITY

9.1 There is a Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Employer and SEIU Healthcare, covering wages, hours of work, and other terms and conditions of employment. The Collective Bargaining Agreement provides that the Union is the sole representative for the classification of work for which the Employee is hired. After completion of ninety (90) calendar days of employment, the Collective Bargaining Agreement provides the Employee with the following two choices:

1. Employees may elect to become a Union member and participate fully in the affairs of the Union by paying an initiation fee and monthly dues.

2. Employees may choose not to become a Union member and pay a service fee and monthly fees. These employees shall not be able to attend membership meets or participate in contract negotiations.

At the time of employment, a new employee who shall be subject to this Agreement shall be informed of this by the Employer and the Union.

It is the Employee's responsibility and a condition of employment to ensure that payments to the Union are made on a timely basis. The Collective Bargaining Agreement provides that Employees may voluntarily elect to have Union Dues and fees deducted from their checks and sent to the Union.

9.2 All Employees covered by this Agreement who are now or may hereafter become members of the Union shall during the life of this Agreement remain members of the Union in good standing as a condition of employment. "In good standing," for the purpose of this Agreement, is defined to mean the payment of a standard regular monthly dues, uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the Union.

Employees covered by this Agreement who elect not to become Union members shall pay the Union an enrollment fee in an amount equal to the standard initiation fee paid by Employees who become Union members and a monthly service fee equal to the standard monthly dues paid by Union members. This payment in no event shall exceed the regular monthly Union dues paid by Union members working an equivalent number of hours.

Payments required by this section shall be made only after an Employee has completed ninety (90) days of employment. The fee required by paragraph one shall be due and payable upon the ninety-first (91st) day of employment and must be paid within ten (10) days thereafter. Monthly payments required by paragraph two are due and payable the first (1st) day of the month following the completion of sixty (60) days of employment.

Any Employee electing to pay the enrollment and service fee who is delinquent in making the payments required herein for more than thirty (30) days shall be terminated by the Employer. Termination shall occur within a reasonable time after Employer's receipt of a written demand for termination from the Union.
9.3 Dues Deductions

The Employer agrees to deduct Union dues and initiation fees, or comparable enrollment and service fees for employees electing not to become Union members who voluntarily provide the Employer with a written authorization to make such deductions. The written authorization shall be irrevocable for a period of more than one (1) year or beyond the termination date of this Agreement, whichever occurs sooner. Deductions shall be made from the wages of employees in the first (1st) pay period of the month in which the payment is due. Withheld amounts will be forwarded to the Union in the month following the actual withholding, together with a record of the amount, social security number, and name of those for whom such deductions have been made.

In the event that no wages are due the employee or that they are insufficient to cover the required deduction, the deduction for such month will nevertheless be made from the first wages of adequate amount next due the employee and will thereupon be transmitted to the Union.

The Union agrees to refund promptly any dues found to have been improperly deducted and transmitted to the Union.

The Union will also send copies to the Employer of the various warning notices sent to the member pursuant to its present practice.

If the employee does not remain in good standing, as defined above, the Employer shall terminate the employee.

Any employee who is paying dues or an amount equal to dues may stop making those payments by giving written notice to both the Employer and the Union during the period not less than thirty (30) and not more than forty-five (45) days before the annual anniversary date of the employee’s authorization or the date of termination of the applicable contract between the Employer and the Union, whichever occurs sooner. The Employer will honor the employee check-off authorizations unless they are revoked in writing during the window period, irrespective of the employee’s membership in the Union.

The Union will provide to the Employer verification that dues deductions have been made authorized by the employee. Employees may express such authorization by submitting to the Union a written membership authorization form, through electronically recorded phone calls, by submitting to the Union an online deduction authorization, or by any other means if indicating agreement allowable under state and federal law.

Any employee who is a member of and adheres to established and traditional tenets or teachings of a bona fide religion, body or sect which has historically held conscientious objections to joining or financially supporting labor organizations shall not be required to join or financially support the Union as a condition of employment; except that such employee shall be required in lieu of periodic dues and initiation fees or service fees to pay to a non-religious, non-labor organization charitable fund exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of Title 26, the sum equal to such dues and initiation fees or service fees at the same time requirements as applies to employees who join and become members of the Union, or who pay a service fee. Failure to abide by these time limits and furnishings proof thereof to the Union shall subject the employee to be terminated from employment. Evidence of payment shall be furnished by the employee.

9.8 Indemnification

If a dispute occurs between the Union and an employee over the deduction of dues or service charges or from any claims of an employee who is terminated for not remaining in good standing as defined above, the Union shall defend and indemnify the Employer for and against all claims and liability.
10.1 Union Representative Access

Union representative shall be permitted to visit the Employer to ascertain that the provisions of this Agreement are being observed and to confer with bargaining unit Employees under the following criteria:

1. The Union shall notify the Employer as to which business representative is assigned to the Employer.

2. The business representative will sign in at the main desk upon arrival, receive a badge for identification purposes, and sign out upon departure.

3. Such visit will be limited to the break room unless different arrangements are made between the Employer and the Union business representative.

4. Employees working with the business representative will do so on non-work time. Other meetings requiring the presence of the business representative, i.e., grievance meetings, labor/management, etc. will be arranged between the Employer and the business representative.

11.1 The Employer will allow the Union space to post notices of Union meetings, list of stewards/leaders, and other Union business in the Employer's break room. Under no circumstances shall such notices include inflammatory or derogatory comments. The Employer may remove postings which the Employer believes violate the above sentence.

12.1 The Employer and the Union agree that during the life of this Agreement, individuals from both parties (the number to be mutually agreed upon) be designated in writing by each party to the other for the purpose of meeting on a mutually agreeable schedule and at mutually agreeable times and places so as to apprise the other of problems, concerns, suggestions, ideas, etc., related to the Facility, the workforce and resident services, all to promote better understanding with the other. All topics for such meetings shall be mutually agreed upon and shall not be for the purpose of initiating or continuing collective bargaining nor in any way to modify, add to, or detract from the provisions of this Agreement, and such meeting shall be exclusive of the grievance and arbitration proceedings in this Agreement, as grievances shall not be considered proper subjects at such meetings.

ARTICLE XIII
GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

13.1 Should any differences or disputes arise over the interpretation of, application or compliance with the terms or provisions of this Agreement, there shall be an earnest effort on the part of both parties to resolve such differences ("grievance") promptly through the following steps. Employer grievances begin at Step 2 (below) by the Employer notifying the Union's Representative, who shall be responsible for providing the responses required under this procedure.

13.1.1 Step 1
Employees shall immediately first informally discuss grievances with their immediate supervisor. A steward/leader may accompany the aggrieved Employee, if he or she requests.

13.1.2 Step 2
If a grievance is not resolved in Step 1, it shall be reduced to writing on a mutually acceptable grievance form and must be submitted to the Employer's Administrator/Designee within fourteen (14) business days of the action or event which precipitated the grievance. Grievances regarding wage provisions of this Agreement shall be timely if submitted within thirty (30) business days after the regular pay day of the period in which the alleged violation occurred. Grievances relating to disciplinary actions or discharges shall be timely if submitted to the Employer within seven (7) business days of notice of the disciplinary action or discharge. The Employer's Administrator/Designee shall meet with the Union's Representative or Designee in an attempt to resolve the grievance within fourteen (14) business days of receipt of a written grievance. The Employer or Union shall have fifteen (15) business days after receipt of a written grievance, to respond in writing to the grievance.

13.1.3 Step 3 (Optional)
If a grievance is not resolved at Step 2, the parties may participate in non-binding mediation of the unresolved grievance, with the assistance of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service ("FMCS"). The parties agree to work in good faith to complete FMCS mediation within thirty (30) business days of their completion of Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure.
13.1.4 Step 4

If a grievance is not resolved at Step 2, either party may refer a grievance to arbitration. Any demand for arbitration shall be in writing and must be received by the Employer's Administrator/Designee within ten (10) business days following the date of a Step 2 written response. The Employer and the Union shall attempt to agree on a neutral arbitrator who shall hear and determine the dispute. If no agreement is reached, the arbitrator shall be selected from a list of seven (7) neutral arbitrators to be submitted to the parties by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Each party shall have the right to reject one entire FMCS list, and to request FMCS issuance of a new list. The Employer and the Union shall each alternatively strike one (1) name, and the order of striking shall be determined by flip of coin. The remaining arbitrator, after each party has made three (3) strikes, shall hear and determine the dispute.

If an arbitration is conducted, the authority of the arbitrator shall be limited to making an award relating to the interpretation of or adherence to the written provisions of this Agreement, and the arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from or modify in any manner the terms and provisions of this Agreement. The award of the arbitrator shall be confined to the issues raised in the written grievance and the arbitrator shall have no power to decide any other issue.

The parties will mutually encourage the arbitrator to issue his or her award, absent mutual agreement of the parties, within sixty (60) calendar days following the close of the record. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and Employee(s) involved. The fees and expenses of the arbitration shall be divided equally between the Employer and the Union, provided however each party shall bear the expense of preparing and presenting its own case.

All the time limitations set forth herein shall be mandatory. A party’s failure to comply with a time limitation for advancing a grievance shall result in dismissal of such grievance. A party’s failure to respond to a grievance at any level shall be treated as a denial of the grievance. Any failure to satisfy said time limitations following a grievance and/or demanding arbitration shall result in the grievance being permanently barred, waived and forfeited, and shall not be submitted to arbitration. The time limitations provided herein may be extended by mutual written agreement of the parties.

The Employer’s obligation to process grievances or to submit any disputes to arbitration under this Agreement shall end upon the expiration of this Agreement, except with respect to grievances which arose prior to expiration of this Agreement.
ARTICLE XIV
NO STRIKE, PROHIBITED CONDUCT, AND NO LOCKOUT

14.1 The Employer and the Union agree that because of the services of the Employer, that this Agreement prohibits unlawful strikes, slowdowns, lockouts or work stoppages ("Prohibited Conduct") during the life of this Agreement.

14.2 The prohibition against unlawful Prohibited Conduct and lockouts shall be absolute and shall apply regardless of whether a dispute is subject to arbitration under the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

14.3 This Article shall not prohibit otherwise lawful Prohibited Conduct if the Employer and Union reach impasse during negotiations regarding a wage reopener, during the life of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XV
SENIORITY

Seniority of Employees Employed by Employer as of December 1, 2017

15.1 The seniority of Employees employed by the Employer as of December 1, 2017 will be based upon their most recent, prior date of hire in the facility.

Seniority of Employees Hired by the Employer After December 1, 2017

15.2 Employees hired by the Employer after December 1, 2017, and retained by the Employer after completion of their probationary period, will be credited with seniority as of their first day of employment with the Employer and their names will be added to the seniority list for their classification.

Basis of Seniority

15.3 Except as otherwise previously provided with respect to Employees previously employed by the Facility’s prior employer, seniority will, for wage and benefit purposes, be based on an Employee’s most recent date of hire by the Employer. Seniority shall be by classification within each department based on an Employee’s most recent date of hire within or transfer to that classification. There shall be separate seniority lists for each classification which shall include full-time and part-time Employees. Employees working in more than one classification shall accrue all their seniority in their Primary Classification. An Employee’s “Primary Classification” shall be the classification in which the Employee is regularly scheduled to work the most hours. Primary Classification seniority shall control for all purposes (layoff, job bids, etc.), other than employee benefits and wage rates.
Seniority Lists

15.4 The Employer shall, on or before the thirtieth (30) day following the commencement of this Agreement, prepare and post seniority lists by classification of all Employees covered by this Agreement, specifying the seniority of each Employee. Such lists shall be updated every six (6) months, and sent to the Union upon Union request.

Vacant Positions

15.5 All vacant positions, whether in existing or proposed new bargaining unit classifications, shall be posted at least seven (7) days before being permanently filled. The Employer may make interim assignments to vacant positions. Such notice shall state the job classification to be filled and if possible, the anticipated shift of work and hours of work per pay period and the qualifications for the position.

15.6 Job related qualifications, as determined by the Employer, may include but are not limited to, related experiences and licensure and/or registration. The Employee with what the Employer determines to be the requisite qualifications, with the most seniority in the classification with the vacant position shall be awarded the position. If no Employee within the classification bids on the position, the most senior qualified applicant outside the classification shall be awarded the position. The Employer may assign Employees to particular areas, residents, or tasks as necessary to satisfy regulatory/resident care objectives, and without regard for seniority.

Transfers

15.7 Employees voluntarily transferring from one classification to another will accrue seniority, from the date of transfer to the new classification. Employees involuntarily transferred from one classification to another shall retain all previously accrued seniority.

Layoffs/Reductions/Recall

15.8 In reducing the number of Employees or making a reduction in hours, the Employer will determine the number of positions to be reduced within the Facility, Department, Unit, or classification. Subject to the preceding sentence, permanent layoffs shall be made in reverse order of seniority. Employees shall be recalled in reverse order of layoff. Employees shall retain recall rights for up to a maximum of twelve (12) months. The Employer will make a reasonable effort to give two (2) weeks’ notice of impending permanent layoff to affected Employee(s). With respect to reduction in hours due to resident census fluctuations, case mix fluctuations, and other factors which cause the Employer to temporarily reduce staffing levels, the Employer may temporarily reduce hours by soliciting Employees to voluntarily reduce their hours, and/or by reducing the lengths of Employee(s’) shifts.

15.9 Employee eligibility for various Employer benefit plans shall be determined by the eligibility requirements of each plan. Employees who move among classifications shall retain their dates of hire and/or total compensated hours for purposes of determining employee benefit plan eligibility and benefit accrual rates.
ARTICLE XVI

16.3 No employee shall work more than five (5) consecutive days during a two week period, unless by mutual agreement between the Employer and employee. All consecutive hours after five (5) consecutive days shall be paid at time and a half. Employees shall be scheduled every other weekend only, except by mutual agreement.

Posting of Schedules

16.4 Schedules shall be posted a minimum of two (2) weeks in advance of Employees’ scheduled work. Filling Vacancies

16.7 In the establishment of work week schedules and shift assignments, the Employer shall give preference in accordance with seniority. This section is not intended to give “bumping rights” for any employee covered in this Agreement, except in re-bid situations.

16.8 The Employer shall follow a process to offer open hours to employees by first offering them on a non-overtime basis by seniority within the classification, then on an overtime basis by seniority within the classification. All open shifts and hours shall be posted for a minimum of five (5) calendar days prior to the posting of the work schedule and no later than five (5) calendar days after the posting of the work schedule whereby employees may indicate availability for specific open shifts within their classification.

There shall be no assignment of additional hours once the schedule is posted except by mutual agreement.

16.12 Night Shift

For night shift employees, the weekend will be considered to begin with the third/night shift on the eve of Friday, and end at the conclusion of the third/night shift Sunday morning.

16.13 Four Hour Guarantee

Employees required to report for work on a scheduled shift or are called into an unscheduled shift will be guaranteed at least four (4) hours work or four (4) hours pay. An employee who is cancelled and the Employer has given a good faith effort to reach the employee, shall not be eligible to receive the four (4) hours pay of work. If the Employer cannot prove good faith, the employee shall receive four (4) hours pay or work.

The Employer may, without notice or bargaining, revise any aspect of its leave forms, policies, or procedures, provided such revisions comply with applicable law.

19.5 Other Leaves of Absence

The Employer will offer employees all other leave required under applicable law.

ARTICLE XX
PAID SICK TIME

20.1 Following completion of 90 days employment, employees will begin accruing paid sick time at a rate of .0308 hours per each hour worked (8 days for an employee regularly scheduled to work 40 hours per week), which may be used for illness of the employee or a family member. Accrued sick time carries over to the next calendar year, but the maximum amount of sick time that an employee may accrue is 96 hours. Employees reaching 96 hours of accrued sick time will stop accruing sick time until they have used sufficient sick time to fall below the cap. Sick time may not be used in lieu of vacation days.

20.2 For sick days that are foreseeable (such as scheduled doctor's appointments), employees must contact Human Resources to request such sick days as soon as employees are aware that they are needed. For unforeseeable sick days, employees must notify Human Resources at the earliest possible time before their scheduled start time on the day that they require such time off. When providing notice to Human Resources or their supervisor pursuant to this policy, a phone call, an email, or a handwritten note is acceptable, but a text message is not.

20.3 When leaving a shift early due to illness, such employee may use sick hours for the balance of that shift if available.

20.4 In the event employees are absent for illness or injury for more than three (3) consecutive scheduled workdays, the Employer may request certification of such illness or injury from a medical practitioner and/or certification that they are fit to return to work following their absence. The Employee shall be allowed to return to work. Sick pay may be withheld until such documentation is provided.

20.5 If employees exhaust their allotment of paid sick days, any additional sick days will be paid only if they have accrued paid vacation days, which will be applied toward the additional sick days taken. In the absence of accrued paid vacation days, or if all sick and vacation days have been exhausted, additional sick days will be taken without pay.

21.4 Eligible employees may carry over up to forty (40) vacation hours over from year to year.

23.8 Experimental Programs

The Employer and the Union recognize that from time to time the requirements of staffing and operating a nursing home may, due to circumstances beyond anyone’s control, become burdensome to employees. To this end, the Employer may, from time to time, in situations where it is necessary to maintain the efficient operation of the facility, offer premiums or overtime pay to employees who assume additional hours or responsibilities. It is understood that this is intended as a short-term solution, and may be discontinued by the Employer, when the Employer deems it no longer necessary. Similarly, the Employer reserves the right to initiate and discontinue incentive award programs to encourage and/or reward employees.

Any such programs will be applied to eligible employees in an equitable and nondiscriminatory fashion, and on the basis of departmental seniority, if applicable.
